Screenshot Hasil

Visual Studio Code interface showing a Python file named `FRMkaryawan.py` and a running application window titled "Aplikasi Data Karyawan".

The Python code in `FRMkaryawan.py` defines a `FRMkaryawan` class with methods `__init__` and `aturkomponen`. The `__init__` method initializes a Tkinter window with a title and a menu bar. The `aturkomponen` method sets up the window components, including a table to display employee data.

The running application window "Aplikasi Data Karyawan" displays a form for adding or updating employee data and a table showing the current data.
